truth. I said I didn't know what he was talking about.. Now I do.

I joined to uncover that truth and to protect those who are too blind to see it

2. What were your experiences as a new recruit? How do they affect your relationships with new recruits today?

As a new recruit I savored the puzzle of solving what was yet to be solved.
The intoxication of seeing what was yet to be seen by others was incredible!
Now when others ask for assistance with their cases I am happy to share what I can without taking that feeling away from them.

3. What is your opinion of the weapons and/or equipment that you have been provided thus far?

Weapons are only to be used in the event that the safety of myself or others is put into jeopardy. For the tasks I was given, I made use of the tools made available to me. Equipment provided was satisfactory.

4. Which, if any, additional weapons and/or equipment would you like to see made available in the future?

The use of night-vision would be helpful.
